

Residential Installer

Full Job Description

This is an immediate opening for a Residential Roofing Installer with Phelps Brothers Roofing, a growing business, in need of a reliable individual, who can work to our Company standards, Produce High Quality Work, Loyalty, Honesty and have a willingness to Learn.

The Residential Roofing Installer will report directly to the Site Forman each day to understand the work that needs to be completed. The Residential Roofing Installer will be responsible for the removal of existing roofing, Prep work and installation of different roofing systems. At the end of each day, it is each employee's job to make sure the job site is clean.

Qualifications:

- Some construction experience.
- High School diploma or GED.
- Must be a U.S. citizen. Bilingual a plus.
- Must have own hand tools.
- Must be motivated, detail oriented, responsible, and punctual.
- Must work well in team environment yet also be able to work independently with minimal supervision
- Must have a valid NYS Drivers License
- Must have reliable transportation to and from the job site each day.

Responsibilities:

Work with the site Foreman to understand the project each day.

- Remove existing roofing systems in a clean and efficient manner.
- Inspect and prepare the structure for a new roof.
- Install new roof system including:
 - Asphalt Shingles
 - Corrugated Metal Roofing
 - Standing Seam Metal Roofing
 - TPO, EPDM
- Work in safe manner
- Clean the property when the job is complete
- Drive a company vehicle when required

Compensation:

Compensation is based on experience.